

LEADERSHIP EXCELLENCE PROGRAM

A unique job-embedded career accelerator leveraging Emotional Intelligence for strategic leaders

Identify your own style to lead authentically and develop talent

Build on Emotional Intelligence to raise your influence and innovation potential

Become a trusted leader for high-performing and resilient teams

Lead with Emotional Intelligence

Today, international leaders and their teams need to gain skills that prepare them to thrive in the most unexpected situations.

Emotional Intelligence (EQ) has become the core capability and competitive advantage for leaders and their organizations.

In our Leadership Training Program, leaders apply strategies to improve and practice their EQ skills, starting by raising self-awareness and recognizing the strategic impact of Emotional Intelligence to drive business growth.

Our program draws upon the latest findings in neurosciences to foster transformation and increase knowledge retention. With personalized leadership development, in-depth activities which turn powerful models into positive experiences, and a strengths-building approach, you can fully realize your potential and engage your teams.
